

The fête competitions are back!

Are you a mum or dad who can bake delicious chocolate brownies? Or create a flower arrangement in a teapot? Can your children make a beautiful windchime or decorate a spectacular cupcake? How about working as a team to find how many things you can fit into a matchbox?

The competitions were sorely missed last year so, by popular demand, we have brought them back with fun new categories.

To enter all you need to do is:

1. Decide which competition(s) you are going to enter
2. Read the rules - see the attached sheet
3. Bring your entry and completed entry form to the infant music room before 10.30am on the day of the fête
4. Judging will take place, in secret, between 11am and 12 noon
5. Visit the exhibits between 12 noon and 3pm to see how you've got on!

Entries will be judged by our own team of leading experts:

Best Brownie Award Ron Rooney from Common Ground Café has the enviable task of deciding which of the chocolate brownies he tastes are the most delicious

Time for Tea green finger award Bianca Rowan who tends the much-admired Honeywell garden will award the prize for the most impressive arrangement of flowers and foliage in a teapot

Tom Thumb Award Honeywell Infant School's own Head Teacher Jane Neal will cast her expert eye to decide who should carry off the prize for fitting most objects into a matchbox

Most Beautiful Bug award Karen Holton from the Honeywell Nursery has kindly agreed to take on the difficult task of deciding which of the creepy crawlies painted on a pebble makes the most eye-catching paperweight

Best decorated cupcake award Will be judged by expert cake-maker Julie Carguillo from the Honeywell Kitchen

The Music to my Ears award The ladies responsible for the wonderful sounds of the Honeywell String Orchestra, Mydie Hertz and Penny Langton, will decide which is the most beautiful and tuneful windchime.

Everyone who enters will receive a certificate. There will be glory and awards for the winners!
